

MK501/MK502 INSTRUCTION

The illustration below shows the connection of the receiver.

There are 3 wires of different color need to be connected to the back of the power head.

The remote of the conversion kit has been programmed for you already.

What you need to do is just "connect and play"

Your original remotes will still be working fine.

